HOSPITAL FUND STILL CLIMBING

$1,232.37 Needed to Reach $40,000 Mark—All Gifts Appreciated.

TOTAL NOW $33,767.63.

Palais Royal of Washington Sends $100—Full Meeting of Committee at 8 O'clock Tonight.

Saturday morning's list as published, showed contributions amounting to 33,532.08. This was a clerical error, and should have been $100.00 more, making $33,632.08; leaving $1,367.92 to be raised to complete the $40,000 mark including Alexandria's five thousand. There was no meeting of the committee on Saturday night nor yesterday, therefore the increased subscriptions necessarily shows small. Deducting all contributions up to 10 o'clock this morning, there remains a balance only $1,232.37, and it is sincerely hoped that those who have not heretofore contributed, but who intend to do so, will send in their subscriptions as soon as possible, so that they may be enabled to complete the work, which has been so successful and which is so necessary to give our city ample hospital facilities.

A full meeting of the Committee has been called by Chairman Brockett to meet at the Chamber of Commerce tonight at 8.00 o'clock and every member is requested to be present so as to lay out an active final canvass for the remainder of this week.

It should be generally understood that every contribution, no matter how small, is thankfully received by the committee and they perfectly understand that small contributons in some cases mean much more than the larger ones.

It is hoped that every citizen will identify themselves with this noble charity by contributng as much or as little as they can spare.

Among the subcriptions received ths morning was one from George Washington Lodge No. 191, Railway Car Men for $10.00, one from the Groveton Guild through Miss Simmons of $5.00 and from Miss Watson's room Lee school an additional of fifty-five cents. A contribution from A. Lisner, of the Palais Royal in Washington, was received this morning, through the First National Bank, of $100.00.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Forty million dollars, conservatively estimated, is the value placed by the head of the National Surety Company, of New York, on defalcations throughout the United States in 1913. Thefts of more than $4,000,000 were publicly reported, while burglary insurance policies paid and other evidences of loss bring the total amount up to the first figure.

Sacrificing their lives in order that the lives of four companions, two of them girls, might be saved, three young men, none of whom could swim, leaped into the Delaware river at Philadelphia from a sinking rowboat late Saturday and were drowned. The dead are John Mouchech, Raymond Tinney and John Murphy. The saved were Geo. German, Sarah German, Mary German and John Nevill. Tinney and Sarah German were engaged to be married.

It was announced in Baltimore last night that radium had effected a complete cure of cancer of the throat, for which A. L. Glass, a prominent railroad official of Gainesville, Fla., came here for treatment two months ago. Last January Mr. Glass experienced an irritation of the throat which gradually grew worse. After an unsuccessful operation the trouble was pronounced to be an incurable case of cancer. Radium was applied late in March, and Saturday night Mr. Glass was told that he might return to his home secure in the belief that he was cured.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Following is a forecast for the forthcoming week: The indications are that during the coming week temperatures will average near or above the normal over the United States. The rainfall during the week will be generally light and local. Next disturbance of importance to cross the country will appear in the Far-West Tuesday or Wednesday, reach the Great Central Valleys Thursday or Friday and the Eastern States near the end of the week; this disturbance will be attended by showers and thunderstorms and be followed by a change to cooler weather over the Northern States east of the Rocky Mountains.

A Washington dispatch to the New York American says. The administration, facing a Treasury deficit and fearing destruction of both cane and beet sugar industry through free sugar, is about to reverse its free sugar policy by amending the Underwood tariff law to retain a duty of 1 cent a pound on sugar. It is estimated such a duty would yield to the Federal Treasury annually about $37,000,000. The Treasury is now running short on revenues about $500,000 a day while awaiting collections from the income tax and other sources. It is the opinion of both sugar and cane growers in Louisiana and beet sugar growers in Colorado, that the 1 cent a pound duty will permit those industries to survive.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, yesterday exhorted public school teachers of Cleveland, Ohio, to defy the board of education, which recently ruled that it would expel all teachers who joined a union. As a result of his appeal, 5,000 persons present at a monster open-air mass meeting in Wade park adopted a resolution to make the fight for union affiliation State-wide. Emissaries of the Ohio Federation of Labor will attempt to organize the State teachers under the union banner. Civil suits have been entered to overthrow the board's ruling. "If these fail," urged Gompers, "I want you all, representative citizens of this State and city, to take the fight to the polls and cut off the official heads of the superintendents and board members who would repress you in maintaining your rights."

COUNTY IS AFTER AUTOMOBILISTS

Non-Resident Car Owners Must Have License When They Enter State.

FINE FROM $5.00 to $10.00.

Officials Declare They Will Enforce Law—Men Will Be Posted at Both Ends of Highway Bridge.

Washington, June 1.—Authorities of Alexandria county, Va., have announced that District automobilists who drive through the county without having procured a Virginia license are to be arrested and fined.

Heretofore, motorists from the District have been permitted to drive their cars in the county unmolested, no attempt having been made to enforce the State license law. The authorities have commenced warning motorists, their attitude being not to commence a vigorous enforcement of the law until District automobilists have had a fair opportunity to procure licenses.

Within the next week or so, however, officers will be stationed at the south end of the Aqueduct, Highway, and Chain Bridge, and drivers of machines crosing over into Virginia will be arrested unless they have the necessary license, or can prove to the satifaction of the authorities that it is the first time they have been in the State during the year.

Under the law, a motorist with a license from another jurisdiction is permitted to drive into Virginia once a year and remain seven days without procuring a Virginia license, but entering and leaving the State is construed as having used up the seven-day privilege, although the automobilist may have remained in the State only an hour or so.

For some time the county authorities have been taking numbers of District inachines entering the county. The object of this is to have proof that certain motorists who make a practice of driving through Alexandria county regularly have actually been in the State, should they put up the claim, when arrested, that it is their first visit within the year.

The Virginia tax ranges from $5 to $10 a year, according to the horsepower of the machine.

DEATH OF WILLIAM HANCOCK.

Was Formerly Prominent Leader in Tobacco Industry in Richmond.

William Hancock, for many years one of the leading tobacco manufacturers of Richmond, died this morning at 12:45 o'clock at his home, 11 1-2 north Twenty-Ninth Street, after a long illness, aged seventy-nine years. The arrangements for the funeral have not been completed, but it will probably take place from the First Baptist Church, of which Mr. Hancock was an active member for many years.

Mr. Hancock was born in Chesterfield county in 1835, a son of Ananias and Bessie Stanton Hancock, both descendants of early settlers of Virginia. Mr. Hancock came to Richmond when seventeen years of age and entered the employment of J. W. Atkinson, and later was with William Grainer until the outbreak of the War Between the States, when he entered the Tenth Battalion, Virginia Infantry, serving as a private soldier with distinguished gallantry until the surrender of Lee's army in 1865. His command took an active part in the battles of Seven Pines, Fort Gilmore and in other engagements.

A Strawberry Festival will be held at the corner of King and Peyton Sts. Thursday and Friday night by the Second Baptist Church. 1--3t.

BEGINNING OF FISCAL YEAR.

Tax and License Ordinance Recently Passed go Into Effect Today.

The city's fical year came to a close last night, and the reports of the Auditor, City Treasurer, Clerk of Gas and Superintendent have been prepared and will doubtless be presented to the City Council next week.

As has been stated, there are no changes in the tax law, and only minor ones in the license bill.

The time for paying dog licenses is now at hand, and the Auditor had his usual upply of tags ready to dispense to such residents as think enough of those animals to pay the tax on them.

FOUR BURNED TO DEATH.

Home of Patrick O'Brien at Binghampton Destroyed by Fire.

Binghampton, N. Y., June 1.—Four persons were burned to death and another was probably fatally burned there early yesterday morning, in a fire which destroyed the home of Patrick O'Brien. The dead are, Mrs. Ellen O'Brien, mother of Patrick, and his two daughters, Ellen and Marguerite, and a niece of Mr. O'Brien.

AFTER SWANSON'S TOGA

Montague May Enter Contest If Glass Declines To Run.

Washington, June 1—Virginia political leaders in Washington are predicting hotly-contested fights in that State for the Democratic United States Senatorial nomination in 1916 and for the Democratic Gubernatorial nomination in 1917.

Present day indications they declare, are shaping up for contests for those two important offices which will rival the 1911 Senatorial contest between Senator Martin and Congressman Jones and Senator Swanson and Representative Glass for factional feeling.

The declaration of Governor Henry C. Stuart that he will not seek Senator Swanson's toga has brought forth assertions that the junior Senator will face strong opposition when he comes up for re-election in the summer of 1916.

Some of Mr. Swanson's enemies are anxious for Representative Carter Glass to make this fight.

Mr. Glass however, is not lending any sympathy to this talk. The situation may resolve itself into bringing out Representative A. J. Montague as the junior Senator's opponent, if Mr. Glass declines to run.

For the Governorship Richard Evelyn Byrd, of Winchester, former Speaker of the House of Delegates, the present United States District Attorney for the Western District of Virginia and manager of the Wilson campaign in Virginia, will be a candidate. He has advised his friends he will make the race.

Storm in Petersburg.

Petersburg, Va., June 1.—One of the severest storms that has visited Petersburg in many months swept over the city between 6 and 7 o'clock Saturday evening. The rain fell for nearly an hour, accompanied by a terrific electrical display and mixed with a great deal of hail, which in several portions of the city is said to have been the largest seen here for the past several years. In various sections of the city trees and telephone poles were shattered by lightning and the falling of trees, caused by the high wind, shattered many telephone and telegraph wires and endangered traffic.

The street were strewn with branches in many sections, but the storm was welcomed because of the severe dry spell that has prevailed here during the past few weeks.

INVESTIGATING LOSS OF STEAMER

Royal Commission Begins Inquiry of Disaster at Montreal Today

MASTERS TO TESTIFY.

Grave Discrepancies in Stories of Captains of Passenger Steamer and the Collier, which Rammed Her.

Montreal, Quebec, June 1.—Government investigation of the loss of nearly 1,000 lives when the C. P. R. liner Empress of Ireland was rammed and sunk by the collier Storstad, started here today. Captain Lindsay, wreck commissioner of the Dominion of Canada, opened an inquiry which will probe the causes of the horror preliminary to a full investigation by a royal commission.

Two judges of the admiralty court of Canada and a representative of the British board of trade will finally decide the cause of the disaster. George Vaux will represent the imperial authorities on this final tribunal. He has sailed from London, and will arrive here about June 8.

Captain Lindsay today planned to take evidence under oath from as many passengers of the Empress as can be reached. Captain Kendall, of the lost liner, his crew, and Captain Thomas Anderson, of the Storstad, with his passengers, crew, and officers, also may tell their sworn stories. It is barely possible that the two captains, however, will not give their testimony until the royal commission convenes.

Grave discrepancies in the testimony of Captains Kendall, and Anderson as to the occurrences when the Empress of Ireland went down are to be explained. Both captains declare their boats were almost stationary. Captain Anderson says the Storstad's engines were at full speed when the crash came.

He denies his vessel backed out of the rent she tore through the Empress' side, and insists that momentum of the liner twisted the collier out of the great gap, thus allowing the water to pour in, at such a rate that practically all chance of the passengers' escape was cut off.

Under liable action for $2,000,000, claimed by the Canadian Pacific railway, which owns the Empress of Ireland, the Storstad was held here today. She will be detained until the question of culpability for the disaster is settled.

FIVE MEN KILLED.

Locomotive of Baltimore and Ohio Road Overturns

Cumberland, Md., June 1.—Five Baltimore and Ohio Railroad men were killed and three injured when engine No. 2156 overturned yesterday morning one mile west of Cooks Mills, Pa., nine miles from here.

It is said the engine was running more than 60 miles an hour on a straight piece of track when it jumped the rails, turning completely over a six-foot embankment with the drivers up in the air. The accident occurred near a cut.

No cause is assigned except that excessive speed caused the locomotive to catapult. The speed limit is 50 miles an hour. It was stated by Baltimore and Ohio officials that the engine which was running light, was moving at a rate of 68 miles an hour when it left the tracks.

The engine had been brought from Connellsville to Cumberland to take an immigrant train West. When it reached Cumberland, the immigrants had not arrived and it was ordered back to Connellsville.

Conductor Eysters, although frightfully scalded and almost insane from having inhaled steam, had the presence of mind to run back and flag an approaching westbound freight train.

TABLET LETTERS BLACK.

Legend on City Hall Can Now Be Read With Ease by All Who Pass.

When the tablet on the northeast corner of the City Hall was unveiled on the 8th ultimo the lettering was similar to that on tombstones, and it was necessary for passersby to draw close in order to read the wording. This was commented upon at the time, and the Colonial Dames, who gave the tablet to the city, recently had the letters painted black, which is far more satisfactory.

BASS KILLED.

The bass season opened yesterday, but the season was closed before it opened in the most popular bass stream in this section. Down in Mattawoman Creek, where many Washington fishermen have their huts and cabins, there is plenty of bass—dead.

It appears the waters for miles around Indian Head have been polluted with poisonous acids from the Naval Proving Ground. Mattawoman Creek got its share of the silver nitrate and nitric acid waste. Hence scores of big bass are floating on the surface.

UNPROVOKED MURDER

Joseph Wilkes Shoots Virgil Jones at Potomac Railroad Yards. Last Night.

About ten o'clock last night Joseph Wilkes, colored, entered a car used by employees at the Potomac railroad yards where Virgil Jones and several other colored truck hands were seated, and it being against the rules to allow loitering in the place, Wilkes was told by Jones to move on and not allow the special agent of the company to find him in the house. Wilkes, apparently in a good humor, arose and said, "all right," and started to leave the place. When he reached the door, however, he suddenly pulled a pistol from his pocket and fired at Jones. The latter fell and soon died. Wilkes ran after discharging the pistol.

Special Agent Reynolds, of the Washington Southern Railway, upon learning of the killing, started in pursuit of Wilkes and later found him in the vicinity of the Mushpot road about 5 o'clock this morning. He took him in custody and brought him to the station house in this city.

Wilkes first acknowledged that he had shot Jones but when brought to the police station declared that he had been drunk last night and did not remember what he had been doing. He was identified by six or seven other negroes who witnessed the shooting as the man who had fired the shot.

Jones' body was sent to W. Demaine & Son's undertaking establishment and the county authorities notified. An inquest will be held at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

When Special Agent Reynolds took Wilkes in custody he had a pistol in his possession. The weapon, it is alleged, was forcibly taken from James Lucas in this city yesterday afternoon. Lucas says he was in the northeastern section of the city when a boy approached him and offered to sell him the weapon. Lucas purchased it and he says he intended placing it in a house boat, when Wilkes seeing the weapon in his possession pulled it out of his hand and ran off.

FIRE AT THE ACID PLATN

Northeastern Heavens Illuminated Saturday Night By The Blaze

About ten o'clock Saturday night northern end of the acid plant of the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company was found to be burning. The streets at the time swarmed with people, as is usually the case on Saturday nights, and most of them started in the northeastern section of the city when the alarm sounded and the glow from the burning structure was seen. It was almost an inaccessible fire from the fact that the portion of the structure which was burning was at the extreme end of what was in bygone years the American Coal Company's wharves, adjoining Fishtown. The neighborhood is difficult of approach in the daytime, and much more so at night, especially to those unacquainted with the geography of the locality Notwithstanding this however, hundreds of men, women and children repaired to the neighborhood and some were not content until they stood beside the burning building.

It was found that the engine which is kept at the plant for such emergencies could not be used, and the fire had considerable headway when the department got to work. After about half an hour the flames were virtually extinguished, but not before considerable damage had followed. Officials of the plant are unable to say what sum the damage will reach, and are awaiting the report of an insurance adjuster who will arrive in the city today.

Several years ago a fire broke out in the same section of the building on a Saturday evening in mid-summer. Although the structure was badly damaged, the fire was arrested after the northern end had been destroyed. The insurance men insisted that when the repairs were made a thick wall be placed between the chambers and the burners as a safeguard. This wall checked the progress of the fire Saturday night.

Blue Serge Suits and Other Fine Outing Clothes

The Blue Serge Suit has a standard value as an outing or summer garment that cannot be discredited or reduced in the slightest degree. We have ready large stocks of fine Blue Serge Suits in many models, a goodly number of which are made expressly for us by Hart, Schaffner & Marx. It is pretty generally conceded that London sets the style; we have the London type and the more conservative also.

$15. to $35. each

Our special $25.00 Blue Serge Suit is a value that far surpasses our best efforts. In former seasons the suit made of this same quality material has been priced at $35.00. The lowering in price is due to change in tariff as the fabric is a fine imported English, the other a modified style.

MR. CARLIN'S MASTERLY SPEECH.

Approval in unqualified terms from all parts of the country, including the statement from President Wilson that it was one of the greatest speeches he has ever read has been meted out to Congressman Carlin for his speech last week on the anti-trust bill.

Mr. Carlin, a member of the House judiciary committee, which framed these bills, is well fitted to discuss such matters. Not only this but he was in charge of the measure when his address was made.

Mr. Carlin ridiculed the idea that the country was suffering from misrule of Democratic party and said that the Democrats were simply doing something now which the Republicans had talked about doing, but which they had never thoroughly done, within the last twenty years. In answer to the remarks of Republican members that "big business" was suffering as a result of the drastic legislation which the Democrats were getting through congress and that inevitable trouble was ahead unless they could be halted, Mr. Carlin said that while he was for letting "big business" thrive, he was at the same time, equally sympathetic with "little business." He tore the argument of the Republicans that the country was going to the dogs under Democratic rule into threads and made a most convincing showing as to why the present situation exists. It has been a long time he said, since there has been a thorough house-cleaning, and that is what the Democrats are now doing with a vengeance. They are prepared to see the job done well done. he said, no matter how much the alleged "big interests" may howl about a coming panic. There is nothing, he further showed, and declared that if the Republicans would stop crying hard times and that sort of thing and give the Democrats a chance, the latter would show their real class.

As to the presidency, Mr. Carlin said that he was neither a general nor a high private at the Baltimore convention which nominated Woodrow Wilson for president, and that he favored either Champ Clark or Oscar Underwood for the presidency in preference to Wilson, but that now, since the latter is in the White House, he is giving him and will continue to give him, all the support that he is in his power. It matters not, Mr. Carlin, further said, who he was for when the nominating process was going on; Woodrow Wilson is now president and he (Carlin) will be found supporting him to the last.

If there were more members of congress among the Democrats who would support the administration like the Alexandria congressman Woodrow Wilson's official pathway would be cleared of many unnecessary annoyances and the administration would already be declared an unqualified success.

Two Men Killed by Explosion.

East Boston, Mass., June 1.—Two men were killed and a dozen seriously injured, some of them probably fatally, by a terrific explosion which wrecked the Metropolitan Sewerage Pumping Station early today.

The shock was felt for miles, even being reported in Revere. Bricks were thrown as far as a quarter of a mile, and heavier debris was found 500 yards from the scene.

Windows were broken and buildings shaken. The explosion is thought to have been caused by sewer gas. It caused damage estimated by Chief Engineer Fred G. Smith, of the metropolitan sewerage board, at $75,000. The dead are Martin Devereux, of Roxbury, and Thomas Butler.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

KEITH WILL NOT RETIRE.

Is in Good Health, Likes His Work Sees no Reason to Give it up.

Richmond, June 1.—Judge James Keith, president of the State Supreme Court of Appeals, set at rest last week the rumors of his resignation which have been current around the Capitol since the passage by the General Assembly last w'nter of the bill allowing Supreme Court judges to retire on a generous pension at seventy years of age.

"No, sir, I have no intention of resigning," said Judge Keith yesterday. "I am in good health; I like my work and see no reason why I should give it up. Of course, I thought of resigning in a general way when the bill was passed, but I can assure you that the thought has passed my mind.

"It will be some time," said he, with a twinkle in his eye, "before you will be mentioning people as my successor."

The bill allowing Supreme Court judges to retire on pension will become a law on June 19. It provides that any member of the court, after twelve consecutive years of service, may retire at the age of seventy years, and receive annually three-fifths of the salary he drew as judge.

MANY NEW DOCTORS.

Medical College of Virginia Announces Long List of Graduates.

Richmond, June 1.—Following a long session during which several hundred young men waited in alternating silent and explosive anxiety, the Medical College of Virginia Saturday night announced its list of graduates, including about 100 new doctors, dentists and pharmacists. The closing hours were attended by the usual signs of excitement among the student body as the faculty, behind closed doors, passed upon the applicants one by one. At last the list came forth, and with it a great sigh of relief or disappointment, as the case might be.

No names of Alexandrians appear in the list.

Injured in Accident.

Petersburg, Va., June 1.—J. T. Lewis member of the house of delegates from Mecklenburg and a well known citizen in that part of Virginia, suffered a broken leg and a badly fractured arm in an automobile accident, which occured Saturday afternoon between Dewitt and McKenney, about twenty miles south of Petersburg.

DEATH OF H. A. ATKINSON.

Richmond, June 1.—Former State Senator Henry A. Atkinson, who represented Richmond at one time in the General Assembly, died Friday after a long illness, at his home, 811 East Grace street. He was sixty nine years old.

STORM IN RICHMOND.

Memorial Exercises in Hollywood Are Brought to Sudden Close.

Richmond, June 1.—Soldiers, citizens, Confederate veterans and children to the number of several thousand were drenched to the skin and pelted with hail as large as Minie balls' when they gathered Saturday afternon in Hollywood Cemetery to pay annual tribute to the Confederate dead sleeping in the famous grounds.

Just as the troops filed by the reviewing stand lightning flamed across the sky and a peal of thunder roared out a giant salute. Children crouched in their mothers' arms, and even men, shuddered as the hail came more furiously down.

There was no attempt at speechmaking. When at last the sun shone forth again, the cemetery was almost empty of the living, and Judge Goolrick, who was also the chief speaker on last Memorial Day, when it rained turned sadly away.

THE EXPRESS IS IN THIS TOWN AND IN TO STAY

For seventy-five years—three-quarters of a century—the express has been the right hand of the shippers of commercial America. The Express came to Alexandria in 1850 and it came to stay. For sixty-four years it has been the right-hand of commercial Alexandria.

It is here to stay. The other day when reports went out that the express companies might retire from business, a protest went up. From whom this protest—the express companies? No! the merchants of the country—shippers everywhere—petitioned Congress that no action be taken that might have the effect of forcing the express companies to retire. Commercial organizations all over the land have joined in this appeal to Washington.

For seventy-five years in the past and for a good many more years in the future Express Service will mean.

THE ROOF THAT LASTS FOR YEARS.

The durability and water-proof qualities of your roof, together with its ability to withstand high winds when properly applied, are very important factors in every home or other building.
The J-M Asbestos Shingles are fire proof, weather proof and, when properly applied, will withstand the action of the elements and prove a satisfactory roof covering indefinitely.
They are made by moulding pure asbestos fibres and Portland cement into a solid, compact mass under hydraulic pressure.
They never require paint.
They are used in a great many of the finest buildings being constructed today all over the world.
We are the sole agents through this section and will be glad to give you detailed information and prices at any time.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework.

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.
